MINNESOTA CHAPTER WELCOMES ATTENDEES TO ST. PAUL

Welcome to St. Paul

The Minnesota ESC Chapter Co-Chairs, Trish Curtis and Pete Berger, gave the official welcome on Tuesday morning, July 29. The Minnesota ESC Chapter formed in 2011 as part of Governor Dayton's initiative to reduce energy consumption in public buildings. The Chapter has 29 members ranging from state agencies to university to energy service companies and supply chain vendors.

BOB DIXON DELIVERS OPENING KEYNOTE

“The best way to predict the future is to invent it.”

Opening Keynote

Bob Dixon, Siemens Building Technologies, gave the opening keynote to the conference attendees. “One day my grand-kids will love Performance Contracting,” Bob began. “What a perfect time for people working in this business. The evolution of the ESPC model has emerged as a sustainability model.

Bob concluded by saying if there was a silver bullet to the megatrends of our time -- climate change, population growth, aging population, urbanization, digitalization transformation -- we wouldn't be having this conference.
